Spring: $23,600 due December 1

Cost of Living Comparison

The student budget above is an estimate of living expenses associated with being a full-time graduate student at Wake Forest, and includes: books/supplies, food, housing, utilities, renter's insurance, transportation and personal expenses such as cell phone, cable/internet, laundry/dry cleaning, clothing, and recreation. This budget does not consider existing consumer debt. Minor adjustments may be necessary to fit your individual circumstances.

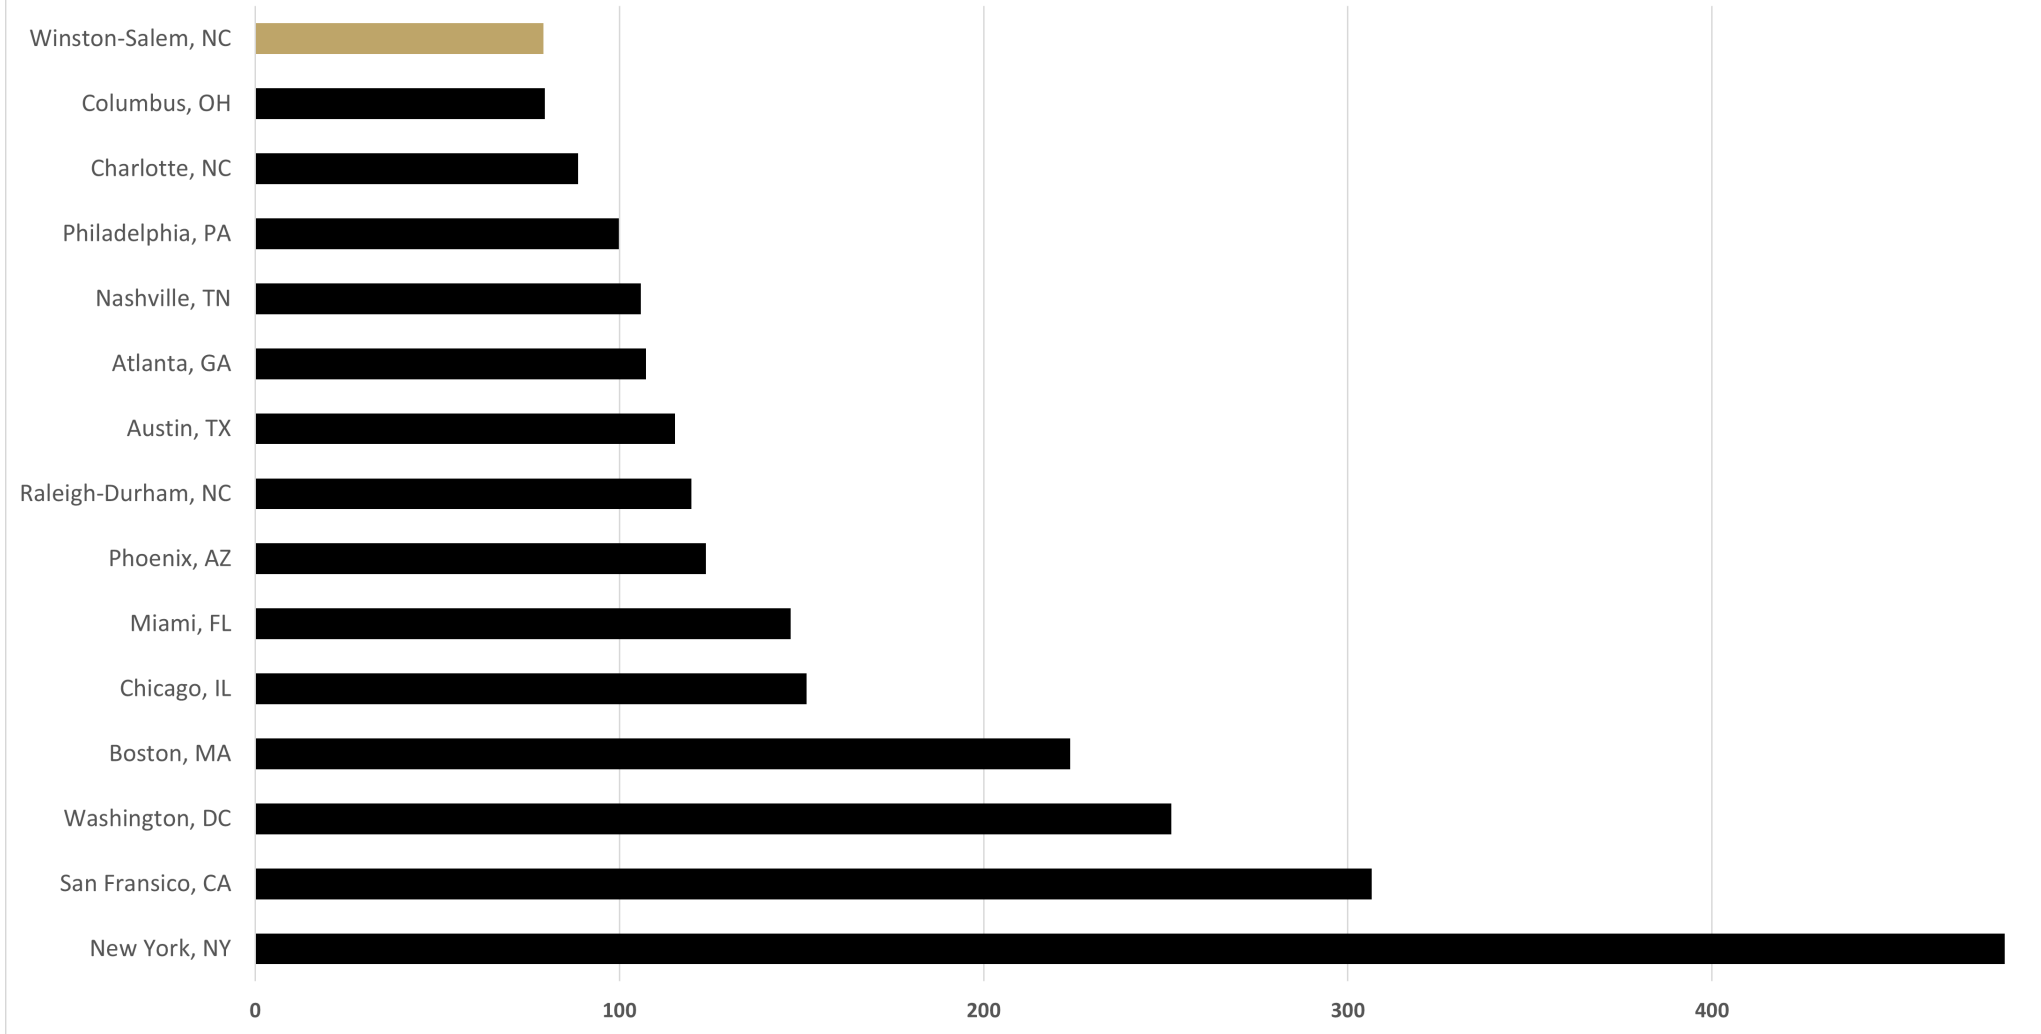

Winston-Salem, NC offers a great quality of life along with a low overall cost of living and very affordable housing options. At Wake Forest, graduate business students live off campus, where there are many nearby housing options, some of which provide free shuttle bus service. The chart below compares Winston-Salem to other cities across the U.S. in terms of housing expenses.

Adjustments to Cost of Attendance

In limited circumstances, the School of Business Office of Financial Aid may approve an increase to the Cost of Attendance (COA). Examples of expenses that may be approved include dependent care expenses, unexpected medical bills or disability-related expenses, and one-time computer purchases. All requests are reviewed on a case-by-case basis and documentation is required. Requests for increases to housing and other costs already included in the COA will not be approved, except in extraordinary circumstances. Please contact the Office of Financial Aid at <https://www.facebook.com/WakeForestBiz> or <https://twitter.com/wakeforestbiz> or <https://www.linkedin.com/company/wake-forest-university-school-of-business/> or <mailto:sbfinaid@wfu.edu> or <https://www.flickr.com/photos/wfusb/albums> to request an individual review.
